The screenshot shows the homepage of the Japanese Society of Radiological Technology (JSRT). The browser address bar displays <http://www.jsrt.or.jp/data/english/>. The website header includes the JSRT logo, the text "Public Interest Incorporated Association Japanese Society of Radiological Technology", and navigation links for Home, Contact us, Access Map, and Site Map. A search bar with the text "Google"カスタム検索 and a "Search" button is present. Below the header is a main navigation menu with links for About JSRT, Activities, Journals, Publications, Membership, and Resources. The central banner features the title "Radiological Physics and Technology" with the invitation "You are invited to submit your manuscript to RPT !!". Below this banner is a row of seven journal covers for "Radiological Physics and Technology" from 2008 to 2014. The text below the covers states "The official Journal of the JSRT and the JSMP, Editor-in-Chief Kunio Doi, Ph.D.". On the left side, there are three vertical boxes: "Annual Meeting >", "Autumn Meeting >", and "ICRST >". Below these is a "Membership" box with a green background and a leaf icon. At the bottom left is a "Contact us" box with contact information: TEL +81-75-354-8989, FAX +81-75-352-2556, and an "E-mail" button. On the right side, there is a "What's new" section with a list of recent events and abstract submissions, including dates and deadlines. The list includes items from 2014/09/01, 2014/06/02, 2014/03/01, 2013/10/30, 2013/10/28, 2013/09/02, 2013/06/01, and 2013/03/01. A link "> What's new" is at the bottom right of the list.
